WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 1.

EXCHANGE PAPERS.—We continue to receive by every mail newspapers containing our little card "To the Pub-lic," and asking an exchange. Our offer in that has been long since revoked.

We receive a great many communications from persons whose names are withheld, or unknown to us, and of course we can pay no attention to them.

European Negotiations concerning

The Intelligencer of this morning says: "The telegraphic despatches sent from London to Liverpool, on the eve of departure of the American mail steamer Baltic, just arrived at New gotiations have been opened between Spain, racy. England, and France, which are likely to result in a treaty, the object of which will be to preserve Cuba to Spain, with some such modifications of her government as were mentioned in a paragraph published in this paper last week. A few days will solve the question."

This is a very grave subject, and worthy the serious attention of our Government. We were very unfortunate in having a representative at Cuba unsuited for his station; and although we entertain no unkind feelings towards Mr. Barringer, our Minister at Madrid, we are constrained to say that we do not think diplomacy is his forte, but that we feel assured he is en tirely unsuited to the duties now devolving upon him. Would it were otherwise.

THE UNION ACADEMY .- We refer to the prosopened under encouraging circumstances. Seventy scholars were received the first day, and Mr. Richards has been obliged to send to Boson for an additional supply of "Wales' furniture." which will soon enable him to furnish seats for one hundred scholars. By reference to another colunn, it will be seen that he has a full and efficient board of teachers, having engaged Mr. Chase, from Dartmouth College, and Mr. McNeil, from Yale College. The philosophical and chemical apparatus is complete. The school is open for visitation from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. The plan of the building, its location, its furniture, and its apparatus, give universal satisfaction.

An End !- The story of "The Witch of Golding Gorge," and "The President's Progress" done into rhyme, are both completed in to-day's Telegraph. The cry for back numbers has been vociferous within the past few days, but could not always be satisfactorily responded to.

ACCIDENT .- A boy, ten or twelve years old, was this morning run over by a buggy, in the First Ward. The wheels passed over both thighs. We could not learn his name, nor the extent of his injuries.

A WASHINGTON INVENTOR ABROAD. - The Maysville Post Boy, of the 26th ultimo, says: "Mr. Edward D. Tippett, of Washington city, the inventor of several machines of great nov-elty and scientific skill, is in this place with his inventions, consisting of a balloon to be pro-pelled through the air, and serve as a means of rapid transportation or machine of war—an engine of the simplest construction, driven by steam generated by instantaneous process from cold water, obviating the necessity of boilers as now used, and preventing explosions; a washing machine, hominy mill, and centrifugal ties from their new and simple construction. "Mr. Tippett seems quite enthusiastic in reference to the practicability of navigating the air by balloons, and intends lecturing on the subject, when he will explain his views at length."

UNLAWFUL GAME .- Men and boys are shooting at birds in the suburbs of this city, and occasionally pepper unfledged ones. Where are "our vigilant police?"

APPROACHING ELECTIONS IN VIRGINIA .- On the 23d of this month, (October,) members of Congress and of the State Legislature are to be elected, and a vote will be taken for and against the new constitution. Voters under the new constitution are entitled to cast their votes upon its adoption, but not for the officers to be chosen. If the constitution be adopted, an election will take place on the 8th of December next, for a governor, a lieutenant-governor, an bers of the Legislature elected in October being vacated by the adoption of the new constitution. At the December election, every white male citizen of the Commonwealth, of the age of twenty-one years, who has resided in the State for two years, will be entitled to vote.

QUICK WORK .- As an instance of the facility with which large masses of stone are elevated at the National Monument, it is stated that the massive and beautiful granite block from the State of Massachusetts was raised on Tuesday, the 23d of September, from the earth, and placed in the position it is intended to occupy, at a height of one hundred feet, in three mi-

HARD LANGUAGE .- Men, who will not fight should try to use that kind of speech that "turneth away wrath;" but the editor of the New York Tribune does not think this. In contradicting the Express, yesterday, he says:

"Neighbor! you are addicted to falsehood on very slight temptations, but this is so scanda-lous, baseless, abominable a lie, that we cannot suffer it to pass unreproved. Remember that we brand it on your forehead as a base, black, wanton, calumnious falsehood, and charge you with knowing it to be such when you uttered it. Will you attempt to justify it?"

A Noble Brougst .- Fifty thousand dollars' worth of property has been bequeathed to the Pittsburg and Alleghany Orphan Asylum, by the late Dr. Thomas Hartford. He also left property to the poor of Canton, Ohio, worth ten thousand dollars.

Isms!-The Louisville Co arier, a very decided Whig paper, alludes to the nomination of Messrs. Tyler and Preston for Governor of Virginia, by some of their respective friends, and says that the Whigs in Virginia will be as careful of being Galphinized as their opponents seem determined to avoid being Tylerized. We have to remark that the odium of Galphinism will prove but a little mote in the sunbeam, compared with Gardinerism, if the latter prove an ism at all; and as for Tylerism, we believe the desertion of the friends who elevated him by that gentleman, and his taking up with those who came to him in the day of his prosperity, constitute a case not wholly unprecedented in modern history. The honorable Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Stuart, has avowed substantially the same rule of conduct. We of course do not object to it, and simply York, announce somewhat confidently that ne- state the fact for the sake of historical accu-

> Mr. FILLMORE. -The New York Herald says: According to appearances, the Whigs of Virginia are in favor of Mr. Fillmore as their candidate for the Presidency at the next election. There is no doubt that the present incumbent of the national executive chair will be a promitermined to prevent a rupture between Spain nent candidate for the same office, in the election of 1852,"

DEMOCRATS OF NEW YORK CITY .- The Herald, of yesterday, states that on Monday evening the Democrats held a meeting in Tammany Hall for the purpose of endorsing the resolutions perity of this school with pleasure. It has adopted, and the candidates nominated, by the Democratic State Convention at Syracuse. It was very harmonious and enthusiastic. The the number has increased to upwards of ninety. factions, which heretofore were so hostile to each other, met together on the same platform, and were as friendly as if they never had any

> NAMES.-Would that it were possible to give to every city, county, town, and village in our country some good original name-some significant Indian name as a general thing. The revival of old classic names, or the selection of names elsewhere appropriated, is inconvenient, and not unfrequently suggestive of a ludicrous comparison. We have just read in the Mayesville Post Boy as follows:

The Paris "Citizen" of yesterday furnishes the following synopsis of the Rev. Mr. Robinson's address before the Bourbon Agricultural Fair.

Think of this, away off by the side of the O-нI-o, (The Bright and Beautiful!) Where such a name is given to a river, ought not names for towns and counties to be sought in the same poetical language? By such a course the word new, that has assumed the office of a diminutive in our vocabulary, might be wholly dispensed with. We remember on one day directing letters to four post offices in the Southern States, viz: Rome, Athens, Panhandle, and Polecat Village. The latter two had the merit of originality, but the former were by association rendered the more ridiculous!

RETURN OF A UNITED STATES DIPLOMATIC AGENT .- We notice in the New York papers of yesterday an announcement of the arrival in the Baltic of Mr. Joseph Balestier, who was sent by Gen. Taylor's government in 1849 to Cochin China, Siam, Borneo, and the Malayan | plains it :

A Nuisance.-We have been requested by a number of persons, doing business in the Northern Liberty Market, to call attention to the disorderly conduct of a number of boys, from fifteen to eighteen years of age, who are in the FRACTIOUS.—A horse ran off with an empty habit of assembling there during the night marcart at noon to-day, on Louisiana avenue. ket, insulting ladies, and stealing harness from > Excussion!-To-morrow the excursion of the William Selden will take place. This is a most delightful season for such a trip, and the W. S. is just such a boat as every one will delight to sail in. There will be a goodly company and a pleasant time. Look to it-read the advertisement, ladies and gentlemen!

General Scott's Letter.

The New York Times states that some few months since a gentleman of Pennsylvania, at the request of eight members of the State Senate, wrote a letter to Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT. addressing him as the undoubted Whig candidate for the Presidency, and requesting his opinions upon the various political questions which have agitated the country.

General Scott wrote the following quaint re-

FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Canada The steamer Canada arrived at Halifax, last evening, with eighty-six passengers, among whom is Lieutenant Governor Sir John Harvey. No American steamer has arrived at Liverpool since the Baltic sailed.

The English news is without interest Accounts from India state that the China re bellion was subsiding. The ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the new market by the President passed of quietly at Paris. The journals still discuss the candidature of the Prince de Joinville, and it is supposed he will announce himself at the proper time. Documents secured in the late arrest implicate the London Committee gravely. The Government paper has been suspended one month, and the editor fined and imprisoned nine months, for an article on the treatment of foreigners by the French Government. The "Messages," of the 16th, says that important despatches were received yesterday from Madrid at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. M. Baroche went immediately to the Elysee, and was joined by the Spanish Ambassador and der in a grocery store under Garry's china store Lord Normanby. France and England are developed last night, and damaged Garry's stock and America, and secure the island to Spain.

The treaty recently concluded between Prusia and Hanover, it is thought by some, will break up the whole Zollverein. The Austrian papers think that Bavaria, Saxony, and Wirtemberg will secede.

The relations between the Sublime Porte and the Pacha of Egypt were assuming a hostile character. The Pacha had armed forts on the coasts to resist any attack.

Advices from Madrid to the 10th merely confirm the negotiations between France and England on the Cuban affairs. Two war transports were to sail from Cadiz on the 15th with troops. MARKETS .- Cotton was dull, the trade buying sparingly, and holders anxious to sell. Breadstuffs were generally unchanged. The demand for wheat and flour was fair. Corn was scarce, and had advanced 6d .- Yellow, 26s. @26s. 6d.; white, 27s. @28s. 6d.

CLARKE MILLS' STATUE OF JACKSON.—The Charleston Mercury, in announcing that the equestrian statue of General Jackson is rapidly approaching completion, and will probably be ready for elevation-on its pedestal by the first of January next, says:

"Although not born in this city, Mr. Mills has resided among us since his childhood, and looks upon it as his home, as his amiable lady and four interesting children still continue to live among us. Charleston may, therefore, be excused in feeling a lively gratification at the success of his labors, which have placed him in the front rank of sculptors, and given him, at the early age of thirty-eight, a reputation usually attained, even by the most fortunate, only after a long life of toil and application.

"The statue of Jackson is of colossal dimen-sions, and is remarkeble in its being self-poised on the hind feet of the horse, differing in this respect from all the equestrian statues of for-mer artists, which have been made to keep their position by accessories that, in some degree, offend the eye of the spectator.

"The statue of Jackson, though the most re markable, is far from being the only proof Mr Mills has given of high and original genius, and a long future of fame and fortune seems now to have opened before him, which it will be his own fault if he does not realize.

THE WHEELING BRIDGE.—The importance of the long-contested "Wheeling Bridge Case" is but little understood throughout the country. effect friendly and commercial relations with A writer in the Philadelphia Ledger thus ex-

"Four railroads are in progress through the State of Ohio, which, in the course of two years, or less, will meet together on the west bank of the Ohio river, at Wheeling. The first and most important of these four roads is the Central Road of Ohio, which forms part of the great line from St. Louis to Philadelphia. The econd, in commercial value, is the Cincinnati and Marietta road, which is intended to draw the trade of southern Ohio and Kentucky to Wheeling, to pass thence by the Hempfield road to Philadelphia. The third is the Cleveland and Wellsville road-a line running in a direct course from Cleveland, on Lake Erie, to the Ohio river, five miles below Wellsville-which will shortly be continued on thirty-six miles further to Wheeling. The fourth is the Steubenville and Indiana road, which will pass through Coshocton, and strike the Ohio river between Wheeling and Steubenville.

"The trade of these four lines of railroads will thus be concentrated at Wheeling. The spirits of turpentine at 34@35c. Sales of 50 hhds. Ohio Hempfield railroad, starting at Wheeling, where whisky at 22c. these four western lines come together, will bring forward the trade and travel which they pear, to the Pennsylvania railroad at Greens burg. All this trade and travel must cross th Ohio on the Wheeling bridge, which was originally constructed with a view to its adaptation to this great duty. Now, it will be recollected that, for the purpose of preventing the trade of Philadelphia from crossing the Ohio at Wheeling, and forcing all the western business of this city through Pittsburg, a suit has been instituted in the name of the State of Pennsylvania, under the sanction of the Legislature, for the overattorney general, and senators and members of the House of Delegates—the seats of the members of the Legislature elected in October being the Whig candidate for the President and travel over the Ohio—or, as Permit me to say that, considering we shall probably only have a Whig candidate for the Presidency through a National Convention, and that I cannot be its nomines exact be the convention, and that I cannot be its nomines exact be the convention. an alternative, go round the great northern bene

THE NEW JERSEY BANK EXCITEMENT.-A letter in the Herald states that the failure of the "People's Bank" in New Jersey, which has of course swindled a given number of operatives in the neighborhood of Paterson, has produced considerable excitement in that cor About three thousand persons assembled on the 26th inst. in front of the bank, and passed a reso-26th inst. in front of the bank, and passed a resolution requesting the Chancellor to appoint two receivers whom the people had confidence in. They then adjourned to the residence of the Cashier, and burnt him in effigy. From thence they went to the residence of the President, and paid him a like compliment; thence to Mr. James Jackson's, a director, and honored him likewise with the same compliment, and then adjourned quietly to their homes. The account says:
"The President, David Burnett, is an elder of the 1st Presbyterian Church; the Cashier, H. C. Stimson, is head man in the Second Presbyterian Church, and Director Jackson is a class-leader of the Methodist Church."

In giving the religious character of these men, the writer omits to say whether it is for the purpose of explaining why they failed, or making it appear wonderful that they should fail. Perhaps, as a religious man, he submits the fact as a curious one.
